ABOLISH BLANDNESS OPENS SNAKES IN THE GRASS AT SBCAST ART LAB
Artists Lynn Cunningham Brown and Sara Lytle Present Paired Works

June 2, 2016 – Hosting crowds, making fun and presenting edgy artworks, Abolish Blandness, a partnership of Santa Barbara based artists Lynn Cunningham Brown and Sara Lytle, will open their doors at SBCAST Studio A on First Thursday, June 2 and First Friday June 3 for Snakes in the Grass, a show featuring two and three dimensional works by the two artists. The studio will be adorned with Lytle's mixed media abstract paintings, which bring vivid color, surprises of simplicity and intensity to the room. Brown counterpoints with five encrusted reptiles studded with fur, feathers, sequins and Swarovski crystals to tease the eye.

Abolish Blandness is the expression of the artists' desire and the process of enjoying, experiencing and living beyond the norm. The space will operate as a gallery, an art lab and a space for the wild. Open to the public on First Thursdays, they will also host pop up events and appointments.
