Aug. 2, 2016 – Abolish Blandness, a partnership of Santa Barbara based artists Lynn Cunningham Brown and Sara Lytle, will rev up their blender and open their doors at SBCAST Studio A on First Thursday, July 7, 2016, for CROWFISH 2: BLENDER, a show featuring two- and three-dimensional works by the unconventional artists. Brown and Lytle will again blend a variety of work and styles to create an eye popping, jaw dropping show. Lytle's compelling mixed media abstract maniac crow paintings combine with Brown's bedazzled and encrusted fish, when blended on high, are guaranteed to please.

Abolish Blandness is the expression of the artists' desire and the process of enjoying, experiencing and living beyond the norm. The space operates as a gallery, an art lab and a space for the wild. Open to the public on First Thursdays, they will also host pop up events and appointments.
